Sub.:- Enhanced Security in Markets during incoming Festival Season.

Respected Madam,

As festival season are coming near and rush of shoppers will increase in markets. Auspicious Navratra are starting from 15th October, 2023 and Karwa Chouth, Dussehra and Diwali are also approaching soon.

In this scenario, anti social elements try to mingle in the crowd and try to commit crimes such as pick pocketing, snatching, looting and thefts etc.

So, you are requested to provide extra security in and around the markets to avoid such incidents during festival days. Beat staff should be strengthened and instructed to remain in the markets especially during evening hours. Area Police should also be instructed to do night patrolling in the markets to avoid any incidence of theft as more stock is kept in shops during festival season.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
